Brief History

A forty acre farm was donated for the development of Ryumonji.The land was donated in February of 2000. In 2003, the first of four permanent monastery buildings was built. This main building is referred to as the Buddha Hall (Hondo) . The Buddha Hall is a 40' x 52' timber framed structure with metal roof and in-floor heating. It was dedicated on June 23, 2007. Currently a new Kuin building is being constructed. It will be completed by Fall of 2007.
