

Sanshin Zen Community

Address	1726 South Olive Street Bloomington IN 47401 U.S.A phone	1-812-339-2635
fax	1-812-339-2635
E-mail	admin@sanshinji.org
web	http://www.sanshinji.org

Directions

From Indianapolis, take US 37 South for about 40 miles. Take the first Bloomington exit, College Ave. Travel several miles ( College Ave. will become Walnut St. ) into and through town until you get to Hillside Ave. where you will go left. About a mile down the road is Olive Street on your right. It looks like an alley but it is marked. Turn right and travel about 2 blocks. Sanshinji will be on your right.

Surrounding Areas Served

---

Brief History

Sanshinji, in Bloomington, Indiana, is the fulcrum for Sanshin practitioners spread around the country. The land was purchased in early 2001, and a home has been built for the Okumura Shohaku family. At this time, the zendo is a part of this structure, but two more buildings are planned: a residential space for practitioners and a central temple.

Founders&Successive Chief Priests

- Okumura Shohaku

Priests

- Corona Chiko

Activities&Annual Services and Events

- Zazen
- Sesshin

このページの変更履歴

- [modify] 2008/02/05 22:53:29 by uchiyama
- [modify] 2008/02/05 22:51:39 by uchiyama
- [modify] 2008/01/10 00:13:08 by uchiyama