

Templo Japonés Jionji

Address	Calle Almirante Grau 618 San Vicente de Canete Prov. Canete Dpt. Lima PERU
phone
fax
E-mail
web

Directions

Along the coast, 150 km south from Lima. Latitude 13 °4'58 .13 "S Longitude 76 °23'27 .23" W

Surrounding Areas Served

Brief History

- 1903, Rev. Taian Ueno moved to Peru for his new assignment.
- 1907, built Nanzen-Ji at St. Barbara, Canete County.
- 1908, renamed to Jion-ji by the two head monasteries.
- 1925, replaced to Saint Luis town.
- 1974, the Earthquake collapsed temple.
- 1977, relocated to the current place.

- 2007, the 100th anniversary.

Founders & Successive Chief Priests

- Ueno Taian
- Saito Senpo
- Oshio Doyu
- Sato Kenryu
- Shinkai Shisaku
- Kiyohiro Ryoko

Former Priest

- Nakao Shodo

Priest

- Jisen Oshiro

このページの変更履歴

- [modify] 2012/09/07 22:07:55 by uchiyama
- [modify] 2009/12/05 01:28:49 by kameno
- [modify] 2008/07/04 12:41:11 by uchiyama
- [modify] 2008/07/04 12:39:58 by uchiyama
- [modify] 2008/07/04 11:29:50 by uchiyama